

Mia watched out the passenger side window as the fields and hedges flew past them. Her and her boyfriend, Alex, were on their way to a weekend getaway at a private lakeside cabin. It was a well-needed holiday for both of them, neither of them having had much of a break from work recently. There was another reason for the trip, however. Mia and Alex had recently been given a pair of magic rings from a strange shopkeeper named Melody.

These rings gave them the power to alter each other's bodies, allowing them to fulfill all their size-based fantasies. This weekend was intended to be a test weekend for them, to really find out what the rings, and their bodies, were capable of.

They had been driving for a couple hours when they reached their turnoff on the highway. Pulling off, they soon reached a set of lights that served as the entrance to the medium-sized town that was to be their place for shopping on this trip. After waiting for their green light, Alex and Mia drove forward before a car flew through a red light to their left and barely missed them.

"Holy shit!" Mia exclaimed. "That car almost took us out!"

"Fuck, I know!" Alex replied, gripping the steering wheel tight, his heart beating fast. "I need to pull over for a second. Fuck." He continued driving forward and pulled into the first parking lot in town, which served as the communal parking lot for a row of small businesses.

Alex and Mia sat in the car, catching their breath and letting the adrenaline ebb away when they heard a rapping knock on the back window. Alex looked up into the rear-view mirror and his eyes widened.

"That's the woman who nearly hit us!" He said.

"Is it really?" Mia asked, angry. The adrenaline was still pumping through her veins. Before Alex could speak, Mia jumped out the passenger door and slammed it behind herself. Alex could see the two women arguing in the side mirror, both talking quickly and throwing their hands in the air.

"I'd better mediate this." Alex said to himself before jumping out of the driver's side door. As he walked around to the back of the car, however, it seemed the argument had ended and Mia was walking back toward the passenger door.

"That's right, walk away, you huge assed freak!" The woman shouted after Mia.

Mia stopped and turned on the spot. She scowled at the dark-haired woman in front of her and looked her up and down, her eyes lingering on the woman's ample chest.

"Alex." Mia said. "Give me the power of Melody's attribute gloves."

"Mia, I - I don't understand what you mean." Alex said warily.

"You don't have to, just say it."

"Um, okay. You have the power of Melody's attribute gloves." Both rings hummed, and Mia grinned as a tingle ran through her hands.

"You have great tits, lady." Mia said, cocking her head and looking at the woman. Mia's ass was a point of great insecurity for her, and this woman had hit a nerve. A look of bewilderment crossed the woman's face, and she opened her mouth and inhaled as though she were about to retort, but came up with nothing.

"Do you mind if I borrow them?" Mia questioned. Before the woman could respond, Mia raised her hands to her own chest. On command, a familiar warm sensation enveloped her and she let out a little moan as her tits began to expand. The woman in front of Mia gasped as she saw Mia's tight sundress begin to fill out.

"What the fuck are you-" the woman stopped mid sentence as she became aware of the gently restrictive feeling in her own chest. She looked down to see that her own top was loosening, her basketball-sized chest seemingly disappearing. Eyes widening, she looked back up at Mia as she began to piece together what was happening.

Mia stood in front of the woman, fondling her own chest and groaning as she felt the stolen mass flood into her, and willed it to fill her faster. Her breasts had passed apples in size and were becoming heavier by the second. She began to squeeze them, tracing her fingertips around her areola and occasionally squeezing a nipple, squealing in pleasure as she did so. As her breasts filled out into firm, round basketballs, she looked up at the woman in front of her. The woman's eyes were flying between Mia's newly-expanded chest, which was now straining against the straps of her sundress, and her now flat chest within her loose top.

"You stole my tits, you bitch! Give them the fuck back!" She shouted, staring at Mia with wide eyes.

"I will!" said Mia. "I told you, I'm just going to borrow them. You weren't needing them today, were you?" Before waiting for a response, Mia ran around the car and jumped into the driver's seat. Alex, still processing what had just happened, climbed into the passenger seat beside Mia. Mia threw the car into drive and pulled out into the parking lot, leaving the woman standing speechless in her rear view mirror.

Alex and Mia drove in silence for a few minutes before Mia spoke up. "You don't think I went too far back there, do you?" She asked Alex. Alex thought for a minute before responding.

"Honestly? No. That woman could've killed us, and instead of apologizing she chose to insult you." He paused. "Plus, watching you steal her tits like that was really hot" He admitted. Mia was driving with the seatbelt very intentionally between her breasts, which were bulging out the top of her now incredibly-tight sundress.

"Well, you're gonna need to have some patience, mister. We're almost at the cabin." Right on queue, the GPS chimed to let Mia know that her turnoff was approaching.

Almost 30 minutes of dirt roads later, Mia and Alex had managed to find the cabin. It was a gorgeous log building situated on the edge of a pristine, flat lake. Pine trees surrounded them in all directions, and there wasn't a single other structure in sight. Mia searched around the porch for a lockbox while Alex unloaded their bags from the car.

“Found it!” Mia sang out. She entered the code the host had given her and the lockbox popped open, revealing the keys. Mia unlocked the door of the cabin and stepped inside. The main room was filled with a few leather couches and plush chairs, arranged to face a wood-fire stove against one of the walls. In the far left corner there was a kitchen, with an oven and fridge against the wall and a counter sticking out from the wall to close it off. Against the back wall there were two open doors, and Mia could see that one led to the bathroom whilst the other led to their bedroom. Footsteps behind her announced Alex’s arrival. She turned to see that he had carried all their luggage up with him in one go. He put their bags down on the ground, panting lightly as he did so.

“Thank you!” Mia said, her arms folded behind her back to present her chest to him. She bounced on her toes on the spot, causing her stuffed-in chest to jiggle within the confines of her sundress. She grinned as she saw Alex’s eyes fixed on them, and turned to walk inside, intentionally swaying her hips side to side as she did so. Alex hefted up the bags and followed her in, his eyes following her ass with every step.

After placing the bags in the bedroom, Alex and Mia made themselves comfy on the two leather couches that faced each other. Mia crossed one knee over the other and cocked her head at Alex, a sly smirk on her face. “Crazy drive, huh?” She asked in mock conversation. She folded her arms under her chest and pushed her breasts up, causing them to push even further out from the top of her sundress. Alex’s eyes practically bulged out of his head.

“Mia, I -”

“Don’t finish that sentence.” Mia commanded. The rings hummed and Alex blinked as the rest of the sentence seemed to catch in his throat. She stood up and walked towards him slowly, making sure to sway and jiggle with every step. She reached the couch Alex was sitting on and climbed on top of him, sitting on his lap, facing towards him with her legs either side of his.

Mia traced her fingers up and down Alex’s arms, eventually placing her hands on top of his. Suddenly, before Alex could react, Mia slid Alex’s ring off of his hand and held it in front of him. “Since we got these rings” Mia said, smirking, “You’ve been blowing me up in all sorts of ways, in public and in private. And don’t get me wrong, I’ve loved every second of it. But...” She leaned in until her mouth was beside his ear, and whispered.

“I think it’s time I had all the power, don’t you?”

With this, she leaned back and held up her hands. She had already been wearing her ring on the middle finger of her left hand, and slid Alex’s ring onto the middle finger of her right. She leaned back and closed her eyes, her mind swimming with possibilities. Alex stared at her, his heart beating fast with anticipation. He certainly hadn’t expected the balance of power to shift so suddenly, but knowing that Mia shared in his expansive fantasies, he felt no concern.

“First things first.” Said Mia, attempting to put on a sultry smile but unable to hide her grin of excitement. “I need to test that wearing both rings actually works. From what we’ve seen so far, Melody put practically no safeguards on these things, so I have high hopes.”

She sat up straight, still sitting over Alex, and pulled her sundress down. After a moment of friction, her enlarged breasts bounced up as the sundress slipped down over them. Mia let out a small moan as they were freed, and traced her fingers around her nipples, eyes closed. She gave both nipples a pinch before opening her eyes and looking down at her chest.

“Grow.” She said. On command, Mia’s breasts began to expand before their eyes, slowly swelling in every direction. Mia threw her head back and groaned.

“I’ll never get sick of this feeling!” She said, reaching her hands up to squeeze her expanding chest. She lifted her breasts up from underneath and dropped them, watching them bounce and swing back into place.

“Stop.” Mia commanded, and the expansion halted as quickly as it had begun. She smiled at Alex, a devious expression now in her eyes. “I have the power to alter the bodies of people around me, without the need for both of us to wear rings.” She stated. Mia felt the rings on each of her hands vibrate. Still smiling, she slid off the couch so that she was sitting on her knees on the ground, in front of Alex. She spread his legs to either side and shuffled forward between them, her swollen breasts pressing into the edge of the couch. She could see from the expression on Alex’s face that the sight was driving him crazy.

“Alex, you’re naked now.” She commanded. In an instant, Alex’s clothes disappeared, leaving him wearing nothing as he sat on the couch in front of her. She reached forward and gently stroked a finger up and down his penis, her head tilted to the side.

“Alex,” She began. “Remind me. What’s the biggest size you’ve blown me up to? Was it when we were at the market, and you made my tits fill my extremely stretchy sweater? Or maybe it was in our apartment, when my breasts filled with so much milk that I was laying helpless on top of them? Or in the grocery store, when I grew to almost 20 feet tall, just to reach a shelf?” She smirked as she saw Alex’s cock begin to twitch as she brought back the memories. Alex remained speechless, unsure whether it was wise to goad her with an answer to a probably rhetorical question.

“Regardless.” Continued Mia. “The point is, you’ve swollen me up to all sorts of sizes, and it occurs to me that I haven’t even returned the favor!” With this, she grabbed his cock with one hand and placed the other on his balls.

“Grow.” She commanded. In an instant, Alex felt tingles run through his body, and a notable heat began to emanate from his crotch. He looked down, and saw his cock begin to swell within Mia’s grasp. He threw his head back, closed his eyes and moaned. The sensations were unlike anything he’d experienced before, a bizarre mix of swollen pressure mixed with pure pleasure. His cock continued to expand with each passing moment, every throb bringing it to a new size.

Alex’s head swam with pleasure as Mia began to stroke his manhood. He opened his eyes and looked down, and couldn’t believe what he was seeing. His cock had grown to be almost the length of his forearm, Mia’s fingers barely touching as she wrapped both hands around him.

“Fuck, Mia” He panted. “This feels incredible. I’m fucking huge!”

Mia laughed. "The first time you made my breasts grow, I became just as much breast as woman. Do you really think this is huge?"

Alex's eyes widened. "What do you -"

"Your cock rapidly grows until it is the same size as your body, with balls to suit."

The sensations that exploded in Alex's mind made the pleasure he was feeling before seem like nothing. His cock swelled out before him rapidly, Mia moving out of the way as his manhood ballooned forward. His cock grew larger every moment, and he cried out in ecstasy with every throb. In what seemed like moments, the growth was complete. Alex was sitting on the edge of the couch, legs splayed and panting heavily, his hands placed on either side of a cock that was a little over 6 feet in length. It rested on the coffee table between the couches, and almost reached the couch opposite his where Mia had originally been sat. His balls rested on the ground in front of him, each the size of a yoga ball.

Mia eyed Alex's newly transformed body hungrily. She walked around the coffee table and sat on the floor in front of her couch, eye level with Alex's cock. Alex's head was bigger than Mia's actual head, and her heart rate rose as she realized this. Mia placed a hand on either side of the head of Alex's cock and began to stroke. Alex threw his head back and moaned; feeling as though the sensitivity had grown along with the size. In response to his moans, Mia began to stroke faster and introduced her tongue to the mix, tracing it in circles around the tip while her hands worked up and down the head

"Fuck, Mia." Alex managed to groan out. "This is too much. I'm getting close. How much am I going to cum?"

Mia stopped running her tongue along Alex's manhood.

"No matter how much you cum, I can take it. My tits fill with the cum I swallow." Mia said, feeling the rings on both of her hands vibrate before her mouth returned to his tip.

The sensations in Alex's cock were growing to a crescendo now; despite the fact that Mia's hands and tongue could only cover a part of the head of his cock, he had never experienced pleasure close to this. As he approached orgasm, he began to breathe rapidly and he felt his whole body tense, and then he came Pleasure exploded in Alex's mind in a way that he had never thought was possible. Every nerve in his body seemed to scream orgasm and his eyes rolled back as he gripped the couch and let out a long, guttural moan. His crotch tensed and contracted, and he felt the first shot of cum leave his body.

Mia sat on the floor in front of Alex, leaning her back against her couch. She had a hand either side of Alex's cock, and had placed her mouth over the tip and held on tight when she felt his climax arrive. She watched as his body began to tremble and his eyes rolled back in his head, and then he came. It was like a firehose had been turned on in her mouth as it was instantly filled to the brim with cum. It filled her mouth and throat and she let out a stifled moan as she felt her breasts bloat outwards. After a couple seconds, it stopped. Mia had barely a moment to swallow, feeling her tits bloat out to now watermelon size, before Alex shook and groaned again, and the second cumshot flooded into her. She felt Alex's seed fill flood her body again as her breasts continued to swell outwards, being filled with the onslaught of cum. After a few seconds, it stopped again and Mia had a second to swallow and take a breath, feeling her breasts continue to expand either side of her body and Alex's cock.

Alex leaned forward, still shaking as his climax continued. He opened his eyes and took in the sight in front of him, his monster cock resting on the coffee table and his girlfriend sitting at the end with her mouth on the tip, two huge breasts swelling on her chest. The sight was enough to push him over the edge.

"Ohhh fuck" He groaned. "This is the big one." He squeezed his eyes shut and cried out in ecstasy. Mia felt Alex's cock contract between her hands, and she had barely a second to think before a third blast of cum filled her mouth. Alex's seed poured into Mia's body as her breasts continued to swell. Cum continued to flood into Mia like a tap had been turned on, and her tits bloated out in front of her like two swelling water balloons. They had reached beach balls in size now, heavy with cum, light veins running across the skin.

After close to ten seconds, the cumshot trailed off and Mia was able to swallow the last of it and take a breath. She surveyed the scene in front of her; Alex sat on the couch opposite, leaning back against the cushions and panting heavily. His two huge balls rested on the floor in front of him, and a monster cock over 6 feet in length spanned across the coffee table between them, resting in front of her face. Her two beach-ball sized breasts wrapped around Alex's cock, resting on her lap and spilling out onto the floor either side of her. Alex lifted his head and looked at her, smiling.

"That." He said, still panting, "was fucking incredible. I've never felt anything like it, and your tits! Holy shit! Are they filled with my cum?"

Mia nodded. "They are. They're really heavy!" She tried to stand to emphasize her point, failing miserably. "I need to do something about this, I think." She placed a hand on each of her breasts and concentrated.

Alex's eyes widened as a warm feeling again filled his crotch, and groaned as it began to swell even larger. Mia's breasts began to shrink down in accordance, her brow furrowed. She opened her eyes in surprise as Alex's cock pressed into her face, having grown another foot. Mia had shrunk her breasts to roughly half of what they had been, now resembling two large medicine balls hanging from her chest, and the mass had filled Alex's manhood and balls even further. There was no hope of him standing up even if he wanted to; his cock was now over 7 feet long and two huge yoga-ball testicles resting on the ground in front of him. Mia smiled.

"That's enough for you for now then. I can barely stand, though. I'll need to put the rest of this somewhere else. Hold on." She closed her eyes and placed her hands on her breasts again. She let out a little groan as they began to slowly shrink. Alex braced himself for another receipt of mass, but found that he felt nothing. He surveyed Mia's body, and couldn't see anything changing with her either.

"Um, Mia?" He queried. "What are you doing?"

Eyes still closed, Mia smirked as her chest continued to deflate.

"I have a debt to pay, don't you remember?"

In the town up the highway from the cabin, Ellie, known to Alex and Mia as the woman who had nearly hit them in traffic, was in her apartment, staring at herself in the mirror. She stood in just her jeans, her top and bra discarded on the floor beside her. Her eyes were fixed on her chest. Where she previously had a pair of round, firm, basketball-sized tits, her chest was virtually flat. “That fucking witch!” She muttered to herself. “She took my tits! I swear to god, I’ll find her and-“

She stopped mid-sentence as a wave of tingles ran up and down her body, and a warm feeling rose in her chest. It felt reminiscent of the feeling she’d had in the carpark when that woman had stolen her breasts, but less restrictive and more... pressurized. All of a sudden, two mounds of flesh rose from her chest and she staggered back.

“Fuck!” She panted as the feeling intensified and the mounds began to fill and swell into two small breasts. “She said she’d borrow them. I guess she wasn’t - nnngh - wasn’t lying!” She reached a hand up to each swelling breast, now the size of an apple each, and lifted them. “They’re not as big as they were before, but they feel so heavy, and... full?”

Her thought was cut short as her growth accelerated. Ellie let out a loud moan as her chest bloated forward, rapidly filling her hands as the soft flesh sunk between her fingers. She dropped to her knees as her breasts continued to expand outward, pinching a nipple with each hand and squeezing. They reached the size of her original chest, and then continued to grow. “Oh fuck” Ellie moaned, in a mixture of pleasure and alarm. “This isn’t what she - fuck - what she owed me!” Her chest continued to expand outward, filling her with a unique and incredible pleasure. She watched her body in the mirror, eyes wide as the growth began to slow down, eventually coming to a stop.

Her breasts were almost twice as they had been to start, resembling two large medicine balls. Sitting on her knees, they completely covered her torso from her perspective in the mirror, and nearly reached her thighs. She sat, panting, trying to process what had just happened to her body. She reached out and pressed a hand into either side of her breasts, squeezing them together.

She groaned in pleasure and pressed harder, a pressurized sensation growing in her nipples. After a few moments, the pressure leveled out as Ellie felt something begin to drip from her nipples.

“What the fuck?” She exclaimed. She reached down and ran a finger across her areola. Lifting her hand up, she found a thick, white liquid on her fingers. Raising her fingers to her nose, she gave it a sniff.

“Is that fucking cum?!”

Back at the cabin, Mia was now sitting crossed-legged on the couch opposite Alex, her chest now returned to its usual flat state. Alex was admiring how her ass spilled out from under her, and she grinned as she followed his gaze and then saw his still massive cock twitch.

“Don’t get too excited, cowboy.” She smirked. “I need to go food shopping while there’s still light in the day!” With that, she hopped off of the couch and walked into the bedroom, leaving Alex to watch her jiggle as she walked off. She came back out carrying her car keys, still wearing her floral sundress and a pair of white sneakers.

“See you shortly!” She chimed, heading for the door.

“Woah woah, wait! You’re just going to leave me like this?” Alex exclaimed, gesturing to his cock and balls, the former of which still spanned across the coffee table to the couch opposite, the latter resting on the ground in front of him. In response, Mia grabbed his phone from the table next to her and checked the screen before tossing it to him.

“You’ve got a full battery and good reception. You’ll survive!” She spun on the spot to face away from him and squeezed her ass with both hands before heading out the front door, closing it behind herself. Alex sighed to himself as he heard the car pull out and head down the dirt road.

“This power really went to her head.”

Mia strolled through the aisles of the grocery store in the nearby town, grinning to herself. She was filling a trolley with all sorts of snacks and cheat foods, having come joyfully to the realization that she could eat whatever she liked and simply use the rings to keep her body in perfect health.

As she pushed her trolley down the aisle, she heard a nervously excited voice behind her.

“It was you, wasn’t it?”

Mia turned around to see a young woman standing in the aisle behind her. She was a few inches taller than Mia, probably somewhere around 5’7 with a slender build, and Mia guessed she was probably in her mid twenties. She was dressed in black boots with knee-high socks, a bit of pale white thigh revealing itself before her legs were hidden again by her black skirt. Her upper body was clothed in a low-cut black shirt, and dark hair fell to her shoulders.

“It was you, wasn’t it?” She repeated. “In the parking lot earlier today. I saw what you did to that woman.”

Mia was caught off guard by this, and tried to play it cool. “Sorry.” She started. “I really don’t know what you’re -”

“I thought it was incredible!” The girl blurted out before Mia could finish her sentence. Mia looked at her, surprised. The girl took a few steps towards Mia, until she was standing right in front of her. Mia was surprised to note that she smelled pleasantly of flowers.

“It was incredible.” The girl continued in a hushed tone. “I don’t know how you did it, but I want you to teach me.”

“I’m sorry.” Mia apologized again. “I really don’t know what you mean.”

"I've been trying to find you all day, since the car park this morning." The girl continued, ignoring Mia's denial. "What you did to her... I mean, more specifically, what you did to yourself..." she trailed off, playing with her fingers nervously. "It was really hot."

"I - really?" Mia was surprised enough to let all pretense go.

"Really!" The girl said, still nervous but seemingly pleased she was making progress. "I've always been sort of into that kind of thing... well, really been into that sort of thing. But I always thought of it as just dumb fantasy. When I saw you blow your boobs up this morning, I knew I had to find you. I would have regretted it if I didn't."

Mia didn't know what to say. She never expected to be confronted in this manner, particularly in this context. She did have to admit though, the girl was attractive. Mia had always had a thing for goth girls, and she knew Alex did too, and the thought of using her newfound powers on this girl did make her heart flutter. She felt her cheeks flush, and she saw a small smirk on the girl's mouth as the girl noticed Mia's red cheeks. Still, she had her reservations.

"Look, um... What's your name?" Mia asked.

"Abigail. But people call me Abby." The girl replied.

"Look Abby. I'm flattered you came looking for me, but I don't think I can -"

Abby took another step closer to Mia, so that she was right in front of her.

"You can do anything to me." Abby breathed. "Grow me, shrink me, any part of me or all of me. Fill me with anything. Give me a cock, turn me into a sex toy, anything. I'll be yours."

Abby had pushed all the right buttons. Mia felt a shiver of arousal run through her at Abby's offer.

"Fuck it." Mia said, throwing caution to the wind in favor of hornyness. "You can come with me. Be warned, I do have a boyfriend. Though, I can't imagine he'd be disappointed by me bringing you home."

Mia placed her items on the conveyor belt, feeling Abby's eyes all over her as she did so. She paid up, put her bags into the trolley and headed out in the carpark with Abby in tow. They moved the groceries into the trunk together, and Abby offered to take the trolley back. As Mia watched her walk, she wondered if she was crazy for taking this girl back with her. Then again, she thought, Mia had been swept up in all of this by Melody that day at the carnival, and it had been the best thing that had ever happened to her. Besides, Abby was hot.

As they cruised down the highway towards the turnoff for the cabin, Abby turned to Mia.

"What happened to your chest, if you don't mind me asking?"

"What do you mean?" Mia replied.

"Well, it's just that when I saw you drive off, your sundress was full to bursting. Now they're gone."

"Do you want to know the full story?" Mia asked. Abby nodded, and so she retold the events of the day.

She was careful not to mention the rings at all, but rather make it seem like her powers were just an innate part of her. When Mia got to the point where she was describing to Abby how big her chest had grown from drinking Alex's cum, she glanced over to see that Abby was gently rubbing a hand on her crotch as she listened. Mia gulped. The thought that her story was turning Abby on this much was exciting to her. What would it be like to share these experiences with another woman, she wondered?

They eventually got back to the cabin and parked out the front. Abby and Mia both climbed out of the car and moved around the back, Mia opening the trunk. They were both about to pick up some grocery bags when Mia had an idea.

"These bags are unpacked in the kitchen." She said. At once, the bags disappeared. Abby stared at the now empty trunk, then at Mia.

"How the fuck did you do that?" She asked.

"I have some level of control over the environment." Mia explained. "Nothing powerful enough to hurt people or to use for my own gain. I mostly use it to alter people's clothing. Or make it disappear entirely."

Turning on the spot, Mia walked up the steps to the porch before Abby could respond. Abby watched Mia's ass sway in her sundress as she walked, feeling a mixture of awe and excitement. She jogged up the steps to catch up with Mia, and they entered the front door together, Mia grinning as she anticipated Abby's reaction.

As Abby entered the main room of the cabin, she froze on the spot. Sitting on the couch was Alex, his massive cock still resting on the coffee table in front of him. He looked up from his phone and his eyes widened as he saw the girl standing next to Mia.

"Who is this?!" Alex said with a mixture of concern and embarrassment.

"This is Abby." Mia said, once it became evident that Abby wasn't going to introduce herself. She was still staring wide-eyed at Alex, all her size-fetishist fantasies becoming real in her mind.

"She found me at the grocery store in town. She saw what I did to that woman in the parking lot and, well, she's into what we're into."

"What." Said Alex incredulously. "She just walked up to you and said 'that was super hot, do me next?'"

Mia laughed. "That is surprisingly accurate to how it went down. Anyway, I've explained my transformative powers to her." Mia threw a wink at Alex, and he instantly understood that Mia hadn't divulged the secret of the rings.

As Mia and Alex talked, Abby found her voice.

"Can I touch it?" She asked, not taking her eyes off of Alex's manhood. Alex began to consider the idea of this slender and admittedly very attractive goth girl touching his engorged cock. His manhood twitched and began to harden before he could even get a word out.

Mia laughed. "I think that's your answer." She said.

Abby tentatively walked forward towards Alex, eyeing his monster cock like it was a wild animal she was approaching. As she walked towards him, he took in her body, his eyes fixed on the smooth, pale white thighs peeking out from between where her socks ended and skirt started. Abby extended her hands out and placed them on the side of Alex's cock, and it throbbed in response. She gulped, her brain running wild. She ran her hands up and down him, marveling at how small they looked in comparison, and then leant forward and gave him a long lick.

Alex let out a whimper as Abby's tongue ran along the side of his shaft. She continued licking and stroking him, letting out little moans as she did so.

Mia was in one of the armchairs to the side, watching the show. "Fuck" she thought to herself. "She's really turned on by his cock. She really is into this."

"Hey Abby." She said out loud. "This is all fun and games, but you wanted things done to you, right?"

Abby stopped her passionate embrace of Alex's manhood and turned to face Mia, her face flushed red with arousal. Mia smiled.

"Here's the deal. This guy behind you has had all the fun today, and can you believe I haven't gotten off once?" Abby's heart began to race, seeing where this was going.

"If you can make me cum, I'll transform you in any way you like. One wish. That's a promise."

Without even responding, Abby walked towards Mia and knelt down on the floor in front of her.

"Hey!" Alex called out. "What a tease!"

Mia pointed at Alex. "Cum. Hard." She said.

Alex threw his head back and moaned, body shaking, as his mind exploded with pleasure and he began to cum. Mia turned her attention back to Abby, Alex's moans still filling the room.

"Where were we?" She asked.

Abby, still on her knees in front of Mia, pushed back Mia's sundress and spread her thick thighs to the sides to reveal a trimmed pussy wrapped in a pair of tight panties. Abby began to trace kisses up and down Mia's inner thighs, squeezing them here and there. Mia leaned back and settled into the chair, gripping the armrests. After continuing her teasing traces for a while, Abby suddenly pulled Mia's panties to the side and began to lick.

Mia pushed back into the chair and gasped, not expecting this sudden assault of pleasure. "Holy shit, she's good." She managed to think to herself as Abby's tongue ran circles around her clit. Mia pulled the straps off of her sundress from her shoulders and pulled the top of the dress down to reveal her flat chest. She began to squeeze her nipples as Abby continued to work her magic.

"Grow" she whispered to herself, moaning as she felt her breasts start to swell under her hands.

Abby continued to eat Mia out furiously, motivated by the promise of a transformation. As Mia began to let out a series of moans from above her, Abby looked up to see that the previously flat-chested girl was fondling a pair of basketball-sized breasts that seemed to be growing by the second. In response, Abby began to lick harder at Mia's clit, and reached up a hand to slide a few fingers inside.

In an instant, Mia came. The sensation was incredible; the combined pleasure of her growing chest, combined with Abby's passionate oral and fingering was like nothing else. Mia doubled over and cried out in pleasure as she came, her now melon-sized breasts pressing into Abby's head as her orgasm washed over her. She felt her whole body quiver as Abby began to gently remove her fingers and slow down her tongue. After a few moments, Mia leaned back into the chair, eyes closed and panting for breath.

Abby leaned back too, surveying the sight in front of her. Mia's sundress was pushed up and her legs splayed, her visibly wet crotch in full view. A pair of melon-sized breasts hung from her chest, rising and falling with each breath. She couldn't believe it; all her size fantasies were no longer fantasies, and the hyper-thick woman with the massive tits in front of her was proof of that. Not to mention the man with the 7-foot long cock behind her. Abby turned around to see Alex seemingly passed out on his couch, the couch opposite him covered in bucket loads of cum.

"I'm absolutely going to cash in this wish." Abby thought. "But I think these guys need a breather."
