

Dark Berry: Bimbo Berry

"All right bitches everyone up its show time" I hear the handler call out, but I'm already awake. How can anyone sleep in this place chained like a dog, and being more or less gang raped night after night with no hope of escape? I run my fingers thru my short brown hair as my chains start to go taut hoisting me into the air onto the assembly line. I have been here three days now, since my paper sent me here for a story, but the manager drugged me and put me here. Since then my body has been abused until I pass out; the only form of relief in this place. I have watched myself bloat into a blueberry, a cherry, and a just plain fat-ass, and every time I try to think this is just a dream, and every time it's shattered.

As I approach wardrobe I resolve that tonight will be different, tonight I will resist and break free. Wardrobe puts me in a simple pair of suit pants and a blouse along with a pair of glasses rammed onto my face, as I pass a mirror I see I look like an average corporate secretary, I used to own a few of these outfits.

I'm dropped onto the ground with the other girls in various costumes, all huddled together in fear of what will happen tonight. a few stand apart standing tall and proud they are the girls who are here by free will, I see they enjoy what happens to them night after night, the whisper in the cells is a few are nymphos who just need sex. I hate them, to have an empty mind laden with only sex is something I would never do. The doors open and we are grabbed by handlers and shoved to our masters for the night I am shoved too hard and fall to the ground at his feet.

He kneels down and grabs my chin opening my mouth and forcing a bit of gum into it. Then I know my fate, blueberry, I'm going to be his blueberry bitch tonight. But as I chew the gum I notice something different I'm not turning blue. Then I feel a warm sensation start between my legs a feeling that has been distinctly absent since I came here, I'm horny. I feel a deep burning desire for something large to be shoved into my vagina I also start to feel my breast start to become sensitive, my hands immediacy start to start to rub and squeeze my breast, I hear a few cat call from the group around me, then are all just standing in a circle with me at the center watching me, it's a bit unnerving but my hands feel so good on my breast, with seem heavier then normal fuller, then I look down and see they aren't fuller, their bigger! I've grown a whole cup size in less then two minutes. A man comes behind me and squeezes my butt "no, st-ah-ah-ahp" I stammer my moan of pleasure over ridding my protest, his hands feel so good on my ass, I start to rub against him hoping he will squeeze again.

Then my brain breaks thru the fog of hormones, "what am I doing!" I scream out pulling myself away from the man, I start to twirl my long blond hair as I try to regain my composer, it take me a minute that my hair is neither long nor is it blond. Before I can react to this sudden change the need between my legs resurge with a vengeance my hand rubs it a bit thru my pants much to the pleasure of the crowd my breasts have now filled out my shirt making it tight and form fitting with the low v cut showing off the tips of my breasts, giving me a slight slutty look, the word slutty rolls around my brain a bit, how nice of a word it is. I shake my head to clear this thought but the growing sensitivity of my ass it making it difficult to concentrate. I run my hands over it, it grown as well it bigger rounder and more sexy, I feel it starting to absorb my panties into its crack. Running my fingers thru my hair I drop to my knees then rise slowly shaking my ass seductively with one hand playing rubbing it slowly the other playing with my luscious blond hair. I think how nice it is to feel it expanding a how my pants have become form fitting to better show it off. I think how nice it is to have it rubbed, have it squeezed, have it fucked. What?! No! I have to resist I will not give in to this voice in my head, but my pussy feels so empty. I try shaking my head again to clear it and try to collect myself but my breast start to tingle again so my hands wander up and start squeezing and pulling. As I feel them swelling bigger I feel my lips start to tingle, becoming thick and juicy highly kissable. Then I feel another set of hands on my ass again this time I push against them grinding on them, enjoying the feeling of hands on my sexy ass a man comes over to me and pulls me into an embrace I can feel his rock hard dick thru my so close to my burning sex and I just want to climb onto of him and fuck him right now. He leans into me "your mine little slut tonight you are my little whore" the word whore breaks thru the fog again I try push the man away, then I start to giggle gaily as he relies me I stick my finger into my mouth then wag the other at him seductively, I start to feel cold air on the top of my ass, so I reach into my pants and pull out the waist band of my panties so that they show off on the exposed part of my sexy ass that I shake for all of the people a few of them smack it and I giggle as it jiggles feeling how nice it is. I undo the top two buttons of my blouse showing off my full grown DD assets and more of my bra, finishing my slutty secretary look.

All I cared was I looked hawt, I scan the room and see this like totally hawt looking guy, I walk over to him starting at him over the tops of my glasses, shaking my ass in my now tight pants for all the other guys to see. I like put one hand on his junk feeling him get all hard and stuff then I like pull his shirt saying "come here I need you". Then as I'm like about to screw this guy in front of everyone, everything turns like blue, I mean blue is such an ugly color why not like pink? And then my tummy starts to hurt real bad this one guy comes up to me and starts to play with it and it feels all kewl and stuff cause it feels like something is inside of me like swirling, but while it feels kewl its like totally ruining my hot body by making me look all fat and stuff with a fucking big belly that gets bigger as I dry hump my boy to take the edge off my pain. a dude like comes over and like starts to rub my boobs as I hump my boy I stand up and pull the guy close his hands feel nice as my boobs start getting bigger again, to which I say there are so such thing as too hawt and the bigger the boobs the hotter the chick.

I reach up and bring his hand to my pussy letting him grab it as I moan out my pants button pops open causing all the spectators to cheer as my belly comes out bigger keeping my pants nice and tight to show off my ass for all the guys. The man releases my boobs and I shove him away the moan calms my hormones enough to let me think clearly the burning in my crotch has died down for the moment.

I look over my body my belly has expanded out like I'm pregnant, my butt is starting to expand past its already blown up state, this time taking my hips with it. Stretching my already tight pants ,my breast already swelled to dd before I turned blue, now they are like making it into the DDD range making me look even hawter then before I touch them and feel the hormones filling my brain, and I like feel my sex drive crank up again

"God I need to fuck soooooooooo bad" I scream out my mind is at war with it self one part wants to giggle at how I'm feeling the other wants to cringe at how dumb and slutty I sound, there is that word again; slutty' the word fills my brain; as two men come over to me and like stand on either side of me, rubbing my ass and my tits at the same time. I moan and giggle at the feeling of their hands on my expanding butt and boobs which is like starting to make my buttons really tight so that it's starting to hurt. my blouse it now a belly shirt really showing off my big fat belly to all the guys. I like grab both their cocks' and they both get hard at my touch. I like, play with them for a bit they feel so good in my hands knowing the power I have over these boys. Then I start to focus on the bigger cock, cause of course bigger is better. I turn my body and feel a dick poking my pussy, his hands play with my big blue ass I want to pull him close but like my belly is in the way, after playing with my pants a bit he grabs it and pulls causing rip to go right up my ass, his hands grab my thong. I push him away and squat down looking up at him I pout "oh these were good pants too" swishing my ass back and forth I rise out of the "but I guess some one is in a hurry" I say grabbing his cock again we squish again and I feel my hips touching god I must look so like fat! I feel his hands on my butt again, god his hands feel good. He plays with my now thong underwear then I feel something else poking me. A penis is thrust between my butt cheeks, I yelp cause is scared me and it felt good

My master leans in on me "like that, you little slut?"

I lick my lips and moan "oh yes! Please fuck me please!"

"Not yet my sweet berry, not yet" both men leave me I need to be fucked so bad now I throw my self at my masters feet ,rubbing my hands all over my sensitive blue body "please, fuck me, I need it so bad" I beg

My master laughs "how far we have fallen once you were prim and proper a temple of virtue, now you're a fat little whore who is begging to be touch by anything with a pulse" As my master like insults me my hands slip down to my ass, it has grown out sticking out like a lot. His words cut deep into my brain but the part of me that cares is like shrinking being swallowed up by cravings for like sex and stuff.

My hands run all over the top of my big ass, I like can't reach any further down. God it feels so good to be touched. I rub all the way around my body feeling that I like a have a ball in the middle of me. It's so big and round, but I'm starting to not look hawt anymore, I'm gonna have to hit the gym after this is over, but right now I don't care I just need to like fuck something hard. The swelling has not left my boobs alone it have blown up a lot to that they are now making my shirt all tight and stuff if I had to guess they'd be EEE now. I'm so horny now, I look around the room at all the guys and girl and how much they all like want me and my blue body some staring at my naked ass the others craving my tits which have made my top a belly shirt. Looking around and shaking my ass I moan out "oh this top is soooooooo tight on my I better take it off" I slowly lift my shirt off and throw it away along with those dumb glasses I push up against on of the nearest people I lean into one of them, I love the feeling of my fat belly pushing against her skin even if it doesn't look as hawt "come play with me baby" I whisper. The girl looks at me then grabs my tummy and jiggles it

"Sorry fatty but you're not my type" then she shoves me like hard and I fall flat on my ass. I have to struggle to a bit to get up again its hard to move when your this hawt, as I struggle to get up there is a tiny sound and I feel something, my thong broke off flying away into a corner somewhere, but I don't care I'm like angry. She just called me fat who is she to call me fat! But if that's the way they feel then I'll just leave I seem to kinda remember wanting to do that anyway. I start to walk away, but it's not the confident stride that would make a man melt like before, no it's a waddle! A true fat girl's waddle! That bitch was right about me!

Now I'm mad I start to walk away but a guy like gets in front of me "where you going tubby? We ain't finished with you yet, besides don't you want this big thick thing inside of you" the guy pull s out his dick and its like as big as he said, I'm so horny I forget that I was mad. I grasp it, and play with it, I try to get on my knees and suck it, but my legs are like too fat to bend. He looks at me "sorry whore none of my dick for you" then he pushes me and I fall back onto my fat ass. I try to get back up but I'm like too fat now, my body is just a giant ball of fat, totally not hawt!

I'm like stuck on the floor trying to get up but I'm like stuck and I'm still so horny I need something bad I try to use my hand but its too short I cant reach then I feel hands on me will a big push I go rolling like a ball then some one else catches me "oh yes I moan, touch me! Touch me please!"

A man leans over to me "unh uhn only good little berries get touch and you've been a bad girl" they roll me to someone else, their hands feel good on me,

"Please please touch me I'll be a good girl I swear please I need to be touched so bad"

then two girls grab me

"but your not a girl you're a berry now, but if you want to be touch so badly then here" and start to lick my nipples, I moan out, it feels so good and I'm so horny I'm ready to explode, I need to cum so badly. Yes I'm a good berry! I'm a good little berry please touch me!" I scream the dwindling reason in my head is horrified but there is noting it can do. Then a penis is put in me along with the two girls on my tits,

"You like having me deep in you berry?"

"Yes YES Berry like berry like more, more!"

"this is all you want now berry cock in side of you more and more cock you're a proper berry whore now and you will never need any thing else."

There is no master for me tonight I am just fucked over and over with different people coming to plant their seed and each one feels so good I scream and moan with each thrust and when each on finishes I have only one thought, more. my reason is nearly gone it looks out from the cage of hormones cry at how much I've come to love it here at the Dark Berry
