

"I shouldn't do this." Kendra said to herself as she stared at her computer screen.

One hand flicked a plump nipple tenting her ill-fitting shirt. The other helped her browse the website where she bought the experimental pills that bloated her tits throughout the last month.

"They're big enough already." The young woman kneaded melons bigger than her head before pinching the swollen nub with her thumb and forefinger. "Mmmhmmaa... R-right? They're... They're big enough."

Her tits had never felt this good, though. Just this little bit of breast play and she was already at risk of drenching her chair.

"They're big enough." She repeated, dazed, while the cursor hovered over the 'buy it with one click' button.

Without the fabric in the way, she couldn't help but moan as she sank her hands into her fattened flesh. The young woman mauled her mounds and pulled her nipples. Each press and tug forced a gasp, a grunt, or a whine out of her lips until there was no other option besides a long, drawn-out howl as her whole body shook with the most powerful climax she had ever experienced.

"See... I'm big... enough..." Kendra breathed out while staring at her formidable, orgasm-inducing tits. "They're big-

Before she concluded, an errand thought made itself present in her head. If they felt this good right now, how good would they feel if they were bigger?

"I shouldn't..." She chided herself, biting her lower lip and directing her eyes back to the screen in front of her. "They're..." One hand went back to the mouse. "They're..." She just had to click. One single click. That's all she had to do. "They're big..."

Kendra clicked the button.

In two to three days she would have the pills in her hands and even bigger tits to play with.

She couldn't help but play with them once again right now.
