“Happy Birthday to you! Happy Birthday to you! Happy Birthday Joohhnn! Happy Birthday to you!” a feminine voice angelically sang.

Sitting in a dark room, illuminated by a single birthday candle, was a woman whose creamy smooth face and golden strands glowed in the radiance. Sitting across from her was a tall tan skinned man with coal black short hair. His joyful smile shown by the light before he took a deep breath and blew the candle out.

The immediate sound of cheers and giggles filled the darkness before both were replaced with lips smacking and fabric being rubbed as the two romantically kissed. After a short minute, the tall man got up and flipped a nearby switch on a wall bathing the room in light.

White walls and red curtains decorated the interior while a large dining room table sat in the center. On a nearby wall was a portrait featuring two individuals. One tall and one short, both in lovely wedding attire. The tall man had light brown skin and combed black hair while the short woman had long silky golden blonde hair and her face a milky white. Both possessed crystal blue eyes that reflect boundless love for each other within each pair.

John sat back down in front of his long-time lover and partner, giving her a warm hug and a wet kiss on her ruby red lips. Her modest chest squished against his well-defined torso, his heart beating in sync with hers.

“I love you, Jessica, I’m so happy to spend my birthday with you. Thank you, baby.” John said with genuine joy before going in for another kiss.

Jessica giggled and sighed in pure bliss as she felt her husband’s tongue dancing in her mouth. His arms wrapped around her petite frame pressing her closer letting his warm body arouse her. When he left her lips and moved to her neck; she shuddered in delight as jolts of electricity ran down her body.

“I love you too John, Mmm I can’t wait to give you your present”

Her husband continued to play with her neck with his tongue and teeth before pulling away; A small string of drool hung from his smiling lips.

“Baby you didn’t need to get me anything, you are the only present I could ever ask for.” He spoke gazing into her beautiful eyes.

“Awww John!” His wife’s cheeks blushed at the compliment, “You are such a cheeseball” She teased back at her grinning lover.

Both erupted into laughter for a moment before Jessica hugged John tightly. She kissed his chest as John scratched her back, his fingers glided smoothly across her black sweater.

“Looks like someone isn’t wearing a bra” The aroused man inquired

The blonde responded with a quite chuckle before reaching up to her lover’s ear, letting her hot breath hit his skin.

“That’s because tonight I won’t need one” Her voice softly confirmed before kissing his ear

Jessica's soft hands reached down to her lover's inner thigh, she felt his bulge press against the front of his pants. Her delicate digits teased the edge of his member before pulling away.

"Bedroom?" The aroused man asked

"Bedroom" Jessica affirmed

The two kissed again before running down the hallway chasing each other to the master bedroom where a large queen-sized bed greeted their vision. On top of the mattress was a medium sized box neatly wrapped in blue wrapping paper. The presence of such an object made the man curious and the woman excited.

"Go ahead baby! Open it!" She squeaked excitedly

"As you command my sweet love" John promptly responded before heading to the bed and picking up the box.

The birthday boy's curious hands shook the box hearing something rattle inside. Nails began pulling the paper away, revealing a solid black box with a smooth outer cover. Inside was a large black collar with an adjustable rubber strap. The inner box cover shows text written in silver stylized letters "Change Collar". Curiosity mixed with confusion of the device in the box was written on his face which Jessica noticed.

"Do you know what that is?" Jessica inquired to her lover

"I uhhh no", he laughed a little, "No I'm not sure what this is"

The petite lady giggled at her husband's confusion. She hoped that was the case as she didn't want to ruin the surprise for tonight. She saw the commercial and got good instructions of what the device does back at the store.

“Let’s just say”, She strutted to her husband taking the collar from the egg white holder, “it’ll make your birthday a truly unforgettable one.” She seductively spoke with a smirk and clasped the collar around her neck.

The sensation of waves of warmth immediately filled her body making her moan softly. A pleasant sensation and a good precursor for the night ahead, she thought. Her eyes gazed at the sexy man before her, as arousal and lust built in her core.

“What this collar will do: is change my body to my command”, she said walking to the foot side of the bed before gently sitting down, “Tonight is your night baby, and my body is all yours to do as you please”, she continued, “so for tonight my command...”, she bit her lip, “will be your command” she playfully sighed as she lied down sprawled on the bed her gaze unbroken.

John stood there a little confused but the throbbing in his pants convinced him to go along with it. He stood over his prone lover looking at her petite frame thinking of what to do first. His gaze then landed on the two mounds resting peacefully under Jessica’s grey sweater. An idea popped into his head making him grin

“Ok my dear - here is my first command” His base voice oozed with arousal as he climbed on top of his wife.

With his two hands, John gently squeezed his wife’s fair boobs making their owner gasp in sudden pleasure from the sensitive nerves reacting to the man’s fondling. He began massaging her mounds, making his loving wife moan in pure delight.

“Give it to me...”, she bit her lip seductively, “I’m all yours” She softly spoke spreading her legs and arms wide into a starfish position

“I want your tits to grow whenever I touch them” He spoke with a wide smile

The blonde gave a blissful moan of compliance before repeating the command to the collar. Like when she put on the collar, the effect took hold immediately. She felt warmth fill her body before being pooled into her breasts. Her tits bulged and grew in her husband's large hands. Hard nipples poked through her sweater and dug into her lover's massaging palms. The rapturous sensations made her moan louder and longer as she gripped the bed reveling in the pleasure raging in her body.

John couldn't believe what he was seeing; his beautiful wife growing like magic right before his very eyes. The sounds of affectionate moans mixed with fabric stretching to accommodate the two growing pale orbs filled the masseuse's ears like music. When he decided to lift his hands, her mounds grew for a second more before wobbling still. His eyes went wide with pure excitement and arousal at the view before him. Contained by a strained black sweater were two orbs larger than his own hands with two stiff nipples poking through the fabric. Above the jiggle slopes was his moaning wife, no doubt still enraptured by the growth she had just experienced.

"Your so big baby!" he softly spoke barely containing his arousal

Her steady breaths made her lovely tits wobble with fall and rise. Newly developed nerve endings constantly sending pleasant signals to her aroused mind as soft fabric gripped tightly to her immense bosom. The sensation was mesmerizing; to think how pleasurable her breasts felt at this size...maybe.

"Mhmmm - Oh Joh - Haan! make me bigger!" Jessica cooed, her eyes shut and her hands still resting by the sides of the bed.

John started to move his hands to Jessica massive mounds but stopped shortly thinking of something better.

He laid down his body atop hers then pressed his hungry lips to hers for a passionate kiss. Now squished between her sexy man's tone body; Jessica's two orbs swelled within their tight confines. Nerves were lit a flame as booby flesh ballooned within their fabric prison.

Jessica moaned into her lovers mouth; her tongue danced around in his mouth. Blissful warmth from the collar continued to go straight to her chest ballooning them bigger creating a thick jiggly bulge between husband and wife. Her breast flesh oozed out from under her shirt and reached to her belly while cleavage kissed her chin. Stress lines stretched tight and bulged larger between the two lovers as her melons continued to ripen.

A small rip suddenly formed from the right side of the sweater as the overtaxed threads pulled and snapped. Soft jiggly flesh eagerly spilled out from the hole making the tear grow wider. The rooms warm air graced against her exposed growing skin adding to the already intense sensations racking her body. The subtle sounds of fabric slowly ripping filled the room but was overshadowed by the moans and sighs of intense love and growth.

Too distracted by John's tongue twisting and turning in her mouth to notice the ruination of her top. Jessica pressed her hand onto his back, digging her nails into his bronze skin. Her other hand ran through his dark hair and pressed his face closer into hers. Her moist loins began to tremble as the overwhelming stimulation was bringing her close to an orgasm. He moved his face to nibble at her shoulder while gliding his soft tongue across her delicate neck making her shudder, sending lightning bolts across her nervous system.

"J-John Haa I-Im gonnna MMMPH..."

John turned his head to her ear and softly whispered his favorite bedroom mantra.

"Cum baby cum! Cum baby cum!" he repeated in a low bass voice that resonated deep within her core.

More holes formed in the grey sweater from Jessica's relentless growth. Widening tears linked together allowing more pale flesh to ooze out of their soft prison.

Her toes curled as boob flesh crawled down her belly button. As its owner got closer to orgasmic release, the lustful woman's sweater was close to exploding to pieces.

“JOHN! IM CUUMMING! She cried out as she felt her velvet walls tense and fluids stained her panties

Jessica’s sweater was stretched to its absolute limit before exploding into rags. Stitching and fabric bits exploded underneath John’s torso as two large mounds emerged, wobbling like jello, and fully exposed with two thumb sized nipples proudly erect from Jessica’s destroyed top. The two mounds jiggled violently as their owner achieved an intense orgasm from the entire ordeal.

Jessica panted hard reeling from her panty soaking release. She cast a hazy sight down her torso only to have it obstructed by her canyon wide cleavage and two immense slopes twice as big as her head. Her jaw dropped at the sight mirroring her lover up above. She poked and prodded her recently grown assets, enjoying the enhanced sensitivity as she held back a satisfied moan. She bit her lip, her core still ablaze and her heart eager to please her lover more. She looked up into his beautiful blue eyes pressing her mounds together in a sexy display.

“Still your birthday mister, got any more commands for me?”
